

During the month of February we are celebrating Black History Month. This is a time when the accomplishments of African American are recognized. We also want to celebrate African American influences on our nation's history. In addition you'll find books which were written or illustrated by African Americans authors and illustrators.

We've put together lists of books using myON, Epic!, and the Alexandria City Public Library. If you need a class code for Epic!, you are welcome to use the library code: xuc4663

Epic! Go to getepic.com and use these book images to help you search for the titles.

myON Use these book images to help you search for the titles.
